

CHRISTCHURCH SQUASH CLUB

By Paul Growcott

Good evening Members

The club has been busy over the past month with several events, and members being acknowledged at club, district, and national levels for their achievements on and off the courts - Congratulations to you all.

Wednesday club nights and Saturday club days will be booked over the Christmas and New Year, but numbers could be limited.

Interclub, Pennant and Junior Club Night will start up again late January and early February. More information will be sent out in January.

Now take some time and read through these outstanding results and achievements from our members.
